You often hear about The Cleveland Museum of Art's fine collection of world art. But did you know that the Museum also offers free lectures that can increase your understanding and enjoyment of that art? Scheduled on Wednesday evenings, weekday afternoons, and Saturday mornings, the slide-illustrated talks are given by Museum staff and include visits to the Museum's galleries. If you would like to know about the lectures offered this fall, call the Cleveland Museum of Art at 421-7340 and ask about the adult lecture series.
